

Art & History in Modern China

Revolution; New Youth

“To sweep away the despotism of these thousands of years, to cast off the servile nature bred in us over these thousands of years, to exterminate the five million and more of the furry and horned Manchu race, to expunge the humiliation of our 260 years of harsh and unremitting pain, to cleanse the great land of China, and to make the descendants of the Yellow Emperor all become Washingtons... The most exalted and incomparable aim is revolution! How imposing a thing is revolution! How magnificent a thing is revolution!”
